

String sextet 15
Erik Carlson
2017

Each player makes their own part.

There are 12 sections in the piece.

Transitions between section are seamless.

Each section has  $N$  notes, where  $N \geq 80$ .
 $N$  is the same for each section.

In each section, each note for each player is randomly selected from a set of  $X$  pitches or a rest where  $X$  is the number of the section.

In section 1, options are C#4 or a rest.

In section 2, options are C#4 and D4 or a rest.

In section 3, options are C4, C#4, and D4 or a rest.

In section 4, options are C4, C#4, D4, and D#4 or a rest.

In section 5, options are B3, C4, C#4, D4, and D#4 or a rest. etc.

In section 12, options range from G#3 to G4 or a rest.

The sextet plays in rhythmic unison.

Each note is one beat at tempo  $\sim 80$  bpm.

Play softly and gently.
