

16th piece for several players
Erik Carlson
2013

Players create their own score.

The piece consists of a continuous series of notes randomly chosen from the range C4 - B4.
The range of the piece can be transposed to fit the instruments.

Each pitch is randomly assigned to an instrument.
Players sustain the pitch they are playing until they are given another pitch to sustain.

Players can rest when needed for as long as needed
unless articulating a new pitch.

If players are sustaining one pitch and are given the same pitch to sustain in the next phrase, the note should not be rearticulated.

Piano e dolce.
A relaxed tempo.
Play for as long as desired.
